

We are proud to present the Brotherhood Of Oceanic Mercenaries!

A merry band of swashbuckling pirates, sailing in from Portland, Oregon, BOOM brings an extravaganza of piratical mayhem!

They come prepared for anything, with black powder cannons and flintlocks, cutlasses and daggers, tricorne hats, and even an eyepatch or two! When the duels are done and the cannons' smoke has cleared, these scurvy pirates may be found throughout the day, singing, dancing and engaging in all sorts of pirate festivities.
